FEBRUARY HOUSE BEERS (Featured beers on the other side)

Boulder Beer Singletrack Copper Ale, Colorado | $4, bottle

This Colorado-style ale reflects the regional qualities of blending Rocky Mountain glacier water with choice caramel malts and delicate aromatic hops. The result is a refreshing, crisp, full-flavored beer with a soft, clean finish.

Flying Dog Brewery Tire Bite Golden Ale, Colorado | $4, bottle

Refreshing, light warm-weather slammer with a flavorful hop edge. Brewed using exclusive imported German hops, this beer draws craft beer drinkers back from the "dark" side of the cooler.

Shiner Bock, Texas | $4, bottle

Mr. Armstrong's favorite, this is a distinctive beer with a rich full-color flavor and deep amber color. Its handcrafted brewing process creates an inviting smooth taste without excessive bitterness. 4.4% ABV

Saint Pauli Girl Non-Alcoholic, Germany | $4, bottle

For those that prefer a non-alcoholic beer, St. Pauli Non-Alcoholic (N.A.) has a pleasant hop aroma, a well-balanced malt flavor, crisp hop finish and the taste of an imported beer without the alcohol. This N.A. has been a Gold Medal winner for the American Tasting Institute Best Imported Non-Alcoholic Malt Beverage. She's a pure, high-quality Girl.

Orlando Brewing, Organic Blonde Ale (American Golden/Blonde Ale) | $4, bottle

A flavorful, light bodied beer. Made with carefully selected malts, the best certified organic hops, pure award-winning water and American ale yeast. The malt fermentation has a crisp, dry finish and fewer carbohydrates than any other Orlando Brewing Beer.

Orlando Brewing, Organic Red Ale (American Amber/Red Ale) | $4, bottle

An Irish Red Ale brewed for color, flavor and aroma that comes from using a blend of pale and caramel malts, Fuggles hops, pure award winning water and American ale yeast. Clean and crisp flavor, alluring hop aroma and unmistakable red color.

Orlando Brewing, Organic Pale Ale (American Style Pale Ale) | $4, bottle

Using only American grown malts and hops, pure award winning water and American ale yeast, this beer is refreshingly hoppy, copper in color, with a spicy, citrus-like aroma.

Orlando Brewing, Organic Brown Ale (American Brown Ale) | $4, bottle

This beer has a higher accented hop presence, characteristic of American styles, and a deeper color.

Orlando Brewing, Olde Pelican (English Style Pale Ale) | $4, bottle

Hop aroma is delicately balanced. Caramel malt and butterscotch aroma is enticingly moderate. Rich and inviting malt aromas are unmistakable.

Orlando Brewing, Blackwater Dry Porter (Brown Porter) | $4, bottle

A black-colored ale with chocolate and roasted notes. Brewed using select American malts, hops, pure award winning water and ale yeast, similar to stout, but lighter in body with an earthy flavor and clean, crisp finish.

We also sell 6 packs to go of mix-and-match beers for only $12.00
(Excluding Chimay and Arrogant Bastard Ale)

FEBRUARY FEATURED BEERS (House beers on the other side)

Orange Blossom Pilsner, Florida | $4, bottle

Orange Blossom Pilsner is a crisp pilsner style beer with 30% orange blossom honey. The honey ferments clean and crisp and is very enjoyable. This recipe has won the founder numerous awards in homebrew competitions over the years.

Orange Blossom Pilsner is a light beer with a pleasing honey character. 5.5% ABV.

Red Brick Blonde Ale, Georgia | $4, bottle

An American-style blonde or golden ale with a light body and fresh malt flavor. Mild hops and a clean finish make Red Brick Blonde a great introductory beer for American lager drinkers interested in exploring craft brewing. 5.6% ABV.

Red Brick Laughing Skull Amber Ale, Georgia | $4, bottle

Back from the dead and better than ever! Like a zombie that just won't die, one of the South's favorite craft beers is back. This newly reincarnated version of Laughing Skull is a full flavored amber ale with a crisp, clean finish that's sure to clear out the cobwebs. So crack open a Skull! You'll be glad you did. 5.4% ABV.

Red Brick Oatmeal Porter, Georgia | $4.25, bottle

A robust porter brewed with lots of chocolate malt and roasted barley. This gives the beer its nearly black color and coffee and dark chocolate flavors. These flavors are then tempered with the use of flaked oats which provide an almost creamy texture to the beer. 7.7% ABV.

Terrapin Rye Pale Ale, Georgia | $4, bottle

By using an exact amount of rye, a grain seldom found in other micro brewed beers, the Rye Pale Ale acquires its signature taste. Made with five varieties of hops and a generous amount of specialty malts, it offers a complex flavor and aroma that is both aggressive and well balanced. 4.7% ABV

Rogue Dead Guy Ale, Oregon | $4.50, bottle

In the early 1990s the first Dead Guy Ale was created as a private tap sticker to celebrate the Mayan Day of the Dead (November 1st, All Souls Day). This beer is brewed in the style of a German Maibock, using Rogue's proprietary Pacman ale yeast. Dead Guy Ale has a deep honey color with a malty aroma and a rich hearty flavor. 6.5% ABV.

Stone Arrogant Bastard Ale, California | $9, 22oz bottle

From the label on the back of the bottle... "This is an aggressive beer. You probably won't like it. It is quite doubtful that you have the taste or sophistication to be able to appreciate an ale of this quality and depth. We would suggest that you stick to safer and more familiar territory - maybe something with a multi-million dollar ad campaign aimed at convincing you it's made in a little brewery, or one that implies that their tasteless fizzy yellow beer will give you more sex appeal. Perhaps you think multi-million dollar ad campaigns make a beer taste better." Enough said. 7.2% ABV

Woodpecker Cider, England | $4, bottle

The use of bittersweet apple provides Woodpecker with a distinctive taste and refreshing drinkability. A crisp semi-dry finish, amber hue with a lightly sparkling appearance, sweet fruity aroma and a slight toffee-apple note. 5.5% ABV

Chimay Premium Red Ale, Belgium | $5.75, bottle

Topped with a creamy head, it gives a light, fruity apricot aroma produced by the fermentation. The taste perceived in the mouth is a balance confirming the fruity nuances noticed in the fragrance. Its taste, which imparts a silky sensation to the tongue, is made refreshing by a light touch of bitterness. This top fermented Trappist beer, refermented in the bottle, is not pasteurized. 7% ABV.
