WINE LIST

JANUARY RED WINES (White wines on the other side)

G'Day, Mates! The 2012 world cycling season is kicking off this month in beautiful South Australia with The Tour Down Under. In celebration, B3 is headed "down under" (at least our wine lists are). Modeled after the Tour de France as a way to bring a major annual road cycling event to South Australia, The Tour Down Under began as a six day event (January 19-24, 1999). The inaugural race so captivated and excited spectators (bringing out impressive numbers in every city and tiny town en route) that the race grew in leaps and bounds every year since. Now world-class teams and riders compete on the streets of South Australia in a bid to win the Ochre Leaders Jersey.

Cape Mentelle, Cabernet-Merlot Blend, Australia (NEW)

$7, glass | $25, bottle

Dark fruit plays off of winter spice undertones on the nose, leading to a rich and varied palate impression; most salient are chocolate, cassis, and spice box flavors. The result is a balanced and mellow red wine, characterized by fine-grained, ripe fruit tannins. This wine is a bit plummy and chocolaty, but it also has herbal and floral notes to add complexity.

New Harbor, Pinot Noir, Australia (NEW)

$7, glass | $25, bottle

From the cool temps of the South Island's northern slopes, New Harbor's pinot is bright and fresh. It's not a concentrated, big-fruit pinot that's been the trend from California producers. Think of this as a medium-bodied strawberry and raspberry surprise. Easygoing but not thin, friendly and winning in a Beaujolais kind of way.

Spanish Quarter, Cabernet-Tempranillo Blend, Spain (NEW)

$7, glass | $25, bottle

Silky flavors thanks to an excellent blending of the Cabernet Sauvignon and the Tempranillo. Deep purple-red coloring with dark cherry, blackberry, and hints of spice and chocolate on the nose. A light sweet oak finish goes well with the berry and dark chocolate flavors. Cabernet Sauvignon (55%) / Tempranillo (45%)

Dynamite, Merlot, North Coast, California

$7, glass | $25, bottle

Flavors of dark fruits and cherries with hints of chocolate and vanilla.

Rosenblum Vinter's Cuvee, Syrah, California

$7, glass | $25, bottle

A full-bodied wine with incredible depth and layers of black fruit, smoke, lavender, herbes de Provence, and a silky touch of vanilla bean that adds to the beautiful finish.

Snap Dragon Cabernet Sauvignon, California

$7, glass | $25, bottle

Expressive aromas of ripe red fruit with delicate hints of sweet spices. Medium bodied. Finishes with very juicy tannins.

Chateau Bonnet Reserve Bordeaux '07, France

$9, glass | $33, bottle

Château Bonnet lies to the North of the Entre-Deux-Mers, on the clay-chalk slopes of the commune of Grézillac, overlooking the Dordogne valley some 10km south of Saint Emilion. The estate dates back to the 17th century; when André Lurton took over in 1956, it comprised 30 hectares of vineyard, which he immediately undertook to renovate and develop. Andre has crafted this refreshing, juicy red from classic Bordeaux varietals 50% Cabernet and 50% Merlot

Chateau Greysac '06, Medoc, France

$10, glass | $37, bottle

A beautiful medium bodied left-bank Bordeaux loaded with red fruits with mild tannins upon release. 50% Cabernet, 38% Merlot, 10% Cabernet Franc, and 2% Petit Verdot.

Note: All wines are available for retail purchase (take home, un-opened) for $4 off the in-house price.
